LE GRAND

Tourism Enterprises

A team of dedicated Tourism experts

We are a team of creative and ambitious people, always in search of excellence. Passionate and determined, we share a common goal: the satisfaction of our customers. We rely on the know-how of more than 40 employees and bring together all tourism areas, such as booking & logistics experts, sales and marketing developers, professional online researchers. We use our long year experience to understand the needs of different nationalities in order to make the most suitable holiday package per each case. Our professionally trained Airport reception team and a group of "Representatives" are always ready to take care of all or customers' needs.
